Saturday 16 December 2017

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) is one of the world's leading centres of excellence for the development of arbitration, mediation and other forms of dispute resolution at all levels.

The Institute was founded in 1915 and now has over 13,000 members in more than 100 countries. The CI Arb is a not-for-profit charity which works in the public interest through its international network of more than 30 Branches and Chapters. The European Branch of CI Arb represents the interests of its members all across continental Europe. CI Arb Europe expands from Lisbon to Latvia, from Brussels to Budapest, and beyond. The European Branch is therefore unique in that it offers a cross-border pan-European footprint in the dispute resolution business.

The Arbitration Center - Moscow is a permanent arbitration institution that administers arbitration in accordance with the effective legislation of the Russian Federation, the Arbitration Center is a subdivision of the Autonomous Non-Profit Organisation "Institute of Modern Arbitration". The Institute was founded by The Russian Federal Chamber of Lawyers, The LF Academy, LLC, and the Foundation for Legal Education and Research. The Institute of Modern Arbitration and the Arbitration Center have the right to perform the functions of permanent arbitration institution (PAI) as of April 27th 2017.

The Arbitration Center at the Institute of Modern Arbitration is among the first arbitration institutions that obtained such right and to administer arbitration according to the Federal Law in The Russian Federation.

Course tutors and leaders

The course tutors and leaders will be provided by The European Branch CI Arb and will include Mr. George Lambrou and Dr. M Raffa who represent the best of international arbitration training and techniques from and whose depth and breadth of successful arbitration sitting experiences make them both admired amongst their peers.

The diversity of cultures and practices across the continent enable the CI Arb European Branch to bring together a unique mixture of international disputes and diverse arbitration methods, practices and experiences to this course.

This Introduction Course is an exception opportunity in offering a varied and exciting programme to those with little or no experience in international arbitration.

The course will be conducted in English.

What is the aim of the course?

This course presents an understanding of the general principles of ADR and international arbitration. The course will provide candidates with an introduction to the legal framework and good practice procedures in international arbitration.

What are the learning outcomes?

On successful completion of this course candidates will be able to:

- Understand the background to international arbitration;
- Describe the process and procedure of international arbitration;
- Understand international arbitration in the context of other forms of dispute resolution.

What is covered within the syllabus?

- Comparison of dispute resolution procedures;
- Fundamental principles of the international arbitration process;
- The UNCITRAL Model Law and Arbitration Rules;
- Arbitration rules: time-limited, institutional, industry standards, industry schemes and ad hoc agreements;
- Arbitration procedures: documents only and oral hearings;
- The legal framework: the importance of the seat, the New York Convention, procedural laws and rules;
- The arbitration agreement;
- Commencement of the arbitration;
- An arbitrator's jurisdiction and powers;
- The arbitration process: obligations of the tribunal, responsibilities and obligations of the parties;
- Managing the arbitration process: communications, preliminary meeting, interlocutory matters, dealing with factual and opinion evidence and disclosure of documents;
- Presenting the claim and the defence: alternative methods;
- Procedure at a typical hearing, including contrasting common and civil law jurisdictions;
- Costs and interest: alternative approaches in different jurisdictions;
- Essentials of an enforceable award.

Who should attend:

- The course is intended for candidates who are:
- new to the field of international arbitration;
 - wish to learn more about international arbitration and its benefits to users;
 - wish to become an Associate member of CI Arb.

What are the entry requirements?

English Language Competence – CI Arb training and assessment is carried out in English. It is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English. CI Arb issues this advice as a guideline and while it will not require any evidence of candidates who do not have a good standard of English may be at disadvantage when sitting the course.

Assessments - How will I be assessed?

Assessment consists of one assignment that is distributed to candidates on the day of the course. Candidates will be given 28 days to complete and submit the assignment. The result is a pass or fail based on understanding and knowledge. Results are dispatched to candidates normally 8-12 weeks from the date of the submission of the assignment. Successful candidates will be able to apply to become Associates of CI Arb.
